CONTENTS AND PREFACE

IV. Manual Style

- A. This Manual is written to organize material, which existed or is being compiled for the first time for the guidance of the Pennsylvania State USBC Youth Association's operation. The Pennsylvania State USBC Youth Association Board of Directors accepted this Manual for use on May 29, 2009.
- B. Only the Youth Representatives can change the Bylaws of the Pennsylvania State USBC Youth Association. The Board of Directors can change the contents of this manual and should strongly take into consideration the suggestions of the Youth Representatives who attend the Annual Meeting.
- C. All pages will have a date of revision located on the bottom of the page, if the page has been revised since the original date above.
- D. Every revised page will have some material that is different from the original version; this material will be preceded by three asterisks (***) and followed by the same so that a revision will be easily identifiable and related to the revision date at the bottom of page. The specific change will appear in italics print. Should the same page undergo a further revision, the replacement page will be re-dated, the old revision's asterisks will be removed, and the new material will be enclosed in its set of asterisks to indicate the limits.
